Minutes from the last meeting were approved.

The next outdoor activity will be the cave overnight in March.

The financial report included updates and a balance of $7,379.36. Den statements were passed out to den leaders.

Religious update; cards signed at an earlier date by all the scouts were presented to the priests. A few rosary patch awards were turned in. At scout Sunday, 5 tigers and 6 wolves will receive light of Christ award. 4 bears will achieve the Parvuli Dei award. All scouts are encouraged to attend the Scout Sunday mass at 11:00 on Sunday, Feb. 7 and to be in uniform.

There is an opening on the committee for Advancement/Awards. It has been noted that this committee position does not usually necessitate a great investment of time. Anyone interested should contact the committee, and any committee members who know of someone who may be interested are encouraged to see if they will look into taking the position. Dave and Rosie are taking care of this month until a new person accepts the position. Thanks Dave and Rosie!

The Miami Valley Council has noted that there are some rumors going on regarding the council. Should anyone hear of any rumors, they have suggested contacting the council to see if they are true or not.

Popcorn orders were turned in and popcorn was available at the Popcorn Colonel's house. All money, including buy-out funds, are due by December 4 from 6:30 to 8:30 at Farenbach hall. Total sales from popcorn are $13,689.00. The popcorn committee will get together to decide the final distribution of prizes.

Public relations; the next newsletter will be out 15th December. Any items for inclusion should be sent in by December 5th and can be emailed at pack169news@gmail.com.

Round table: the 100 years of scouting and February chartered celebration were discussed. The idea of having a fundraiser such as a Waffle house night at a restaurant. There will be an artistry and wood experience at the Dayton Expo. Friends of scouting is coming in December.

Old news: The proposed amendments to the by-laws are still awaiting approval. There are extra t-shirts available. Cracker Barrel has donated a gift certificate. It was suggested that another group may be able to assist the possible boy scout breakfast and the boy scouts in turn assist that group with their fundraiser. The trailer lettering will cost about $300.00. Boys Life has been renewed. The quarter auctions scout involvement will end on December 4th. The committee voted to not participate in the quarter auctions after this date.

Cub master; skits were sent to all den leaders for the next scout night. The Poinsettia sale is upcoming and will be sent to all students and inserted in all bulletins. The uniform inspections will be on December 14th and all scouts will have their ID cards at that time. On the December 18th meeting, Santa will be present. Multi-tool kits were donated by Cabellos; a parent volunteer needed to wrap the gifts. An item will be sought for siblings 10 and under. The pinewood derby kits will be distributed at the November 20th meeting and December meetings will allow for working on cars.

Next meeting; December 11th.
